

Distington Community School

SMSC (Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural development) Policy

As a school, we recognise that the personal development of pupils spiritually, morally, socially and culturally plays a significant part in their ability to learn and achieve. We therefore aim to provide an education that provides children with opportunities to explore and develop their own values and beliefs, spiritual awareness, high standards of personal behaviour, a caring attitude towards others, an understanding of their social and cultural traditions and an appreciation of the diversity and richness in other cultures. This underpins everything we do as a school.

Guiding principles

Spiritual development

The spiritual development of pupils is shown by their:

- Ability to be reflective about their own beliefs, religious or otherwise, that inform their perspective on life.
- Interest in, and respect for, different people's faiths, feelings and values.

- Use of imagination and creativity in their learning.
- Willingness to reflect on their experiences.

Moral development

The moral development of pupils is shown by their:

- Ability to recognise the difference between right and wrong, readily apply this understanding in their own lives and, in so doing, respect the civil and criminal law of England.
- Understanding of the consequences of their behaviour and actions.
- Interest in investigating and offering reasoned views about moral and ethical issues, and being able to understand and appreciate the viewpoints of others on these issues.

The pupils should also develop and demonstrate skills and attitudes that will allow them to participate fully in, and contribute positively to, life in modern Britain.

Cultural development

The cultural development of pupils is shown by their:

- Understanding and appreciation of the wide range of cultural influences that have shaped their own heritage and that of others.

Cross-curriculum teaching and learning

At Distington Community School we ensure that children develop their knowledge and understanding of SMSC through utilising empowering learning and a learning challenge curriculum. These systems help us to ensure that the following statements are embedded into our curriculum;

- Development in SMSC takes place across ALL areas of the curriculum.
- We create particularly strong links to British Values, Religious Education, Collective Worship, Pastoral Sessions and Personal, Social, Health and Citizenship Education (PSHCE)
- All areas of the curriculum draw examples from as wide a range of cultural contexts as possible.

More information regarding empowering learning and the learning challenge curriculum can be found on our website.

In order to develop a strong sense of identity in our pupils, we will use classroom discussion to enable them to:

- Talk about their experiences and feelings.
- Express and clarify personal ideas and beliefs.
- Speak about difficult events, e.g. bullying, death.
- Share thoughts and feelings with other people.
- Explore relationships with friends/family/others.
- Consider the needs and behaviour of others.
- Show empathy.
- Develop self-esteem and a respect for others.
- Develop a sense of belonging.
- Develop the skills and attitudes that enable children to develop socially, morally, spiritually and culturally e.g. empathy, respect, open-mindedness, sensitivity, critical awareness etc.

Many areas across the curriculum provide opportunities for pupils to:

- Learn an awareness of treating all as equals, accepting people who are different because of physical and learning difficulties.
- Agree and disagree.
- Experience good role models.

- Take turns and share equipment.
- Work co-operatively and collaboratively.

Practical activities to develop SMSC include:
